Solemnity of the Holy Apostles Peter & Paul
An Excerpt from the HOMILY OF
HIS HOLINESS POPE FRANCIS
St. Peter's Basilica
Thursday 29 June 2017

The liturgy today offers us three words essential for the life of an apostle: confession, persecution, and prayer.

Confession. Peter makes his confession of faith in the Gospel, when the Lord's question turns from the general to the specific. At first, Jesus asks: "Who do men say that the Son of man is?" (Mt 16:13). The results of this "survey" show that Jesus is widely considered a prophet. Then the Master puts the decisive question to his disciples: "But you, who do you say that I am?" (v. 15). At this point, Peter alone replies: "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God" (v. 16). To confess the faith means this: to acknowledge in Jesus the long-awaited Messiah, the living God, the Lord of our lives.

Today Jesus puts this crucial question to us, to each of us, and particularly to those of us who are pastors. It is the decisive question. It does not allow for a non-committal answer, because it brings into play our entire life. The question of life demands a response of life. For it counts little to know the articles of faith if we do not confess Jesus as the Lord of our lives. Today he looks straight at us and asks, "Who am I for you?" As if to say: "Am I still the Lord of your life, the longing of your heart, the reason for your hope, the source of your unfailing trust?" Along with Saint Peter, we too renew today our life choice to be Jesus' disciples and apostles. May we too pass from Jesus' first question to his second, so as to be "his own" not merely in words, but in our actions and our very lives.

Let us ask ourselves if we are parlor Christians, who love to chat about how things are going in the Church and the world, or apostles on the go, who confess Jesus with their lives because they hold him in their hearts. Those who confess Jesus know that they are not simply to offer opinions but to offer their very lives. They know that they are not to believe half-heartedly but to "be on fire" with love. They know that they cannot just "tread water" or take the easy way out, but have to risk putting out into the deep, daily renewing their self-offering. Those who confess their faith in Jesus do as Peter and Paul did: they follow him to the end – not just part of the way, but to the very end. They also follow the Lord along his way, not our own ways. His way is that of new life, of joy and resurrection; it is also the way that passes through the cross and persecution.
