POPE FRANCIS— ANGELUS
St. Peter's Square—Sunday 26 July 2020

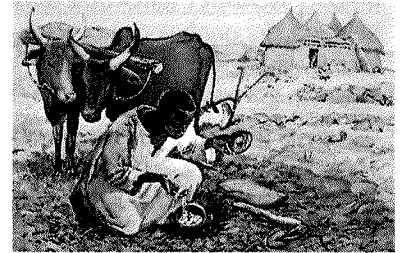

Dear brothers and sisters, good day!

This Sunday's Gospel reading (see Mt 13:44-52) consists of the final verses of the chapter Matthew devotes to the parable of the Kingdom of Heaven. The passage includes three parables that are very briefly outlined: that of the hidden treasure, that of the precious pearl, and that of the net cast into the sea.

I will look at the first two in which the Kingdom of Heaven is compared to two different "precious" items, namely, the hidden treasure in the field and the pearl of great value. The reaction of he who finds the pearl or the treasure is practically the same: the man and the merchant sell everything to buy what is now most dear to them. With these two similes, Jesus proposes to involve us in the building of the Kingdom of Heaven, presenting an essential characteristic of Christian life, of the life of the Kingdom of heaven: those who fully pledge themselves to the Kingdom are those who are willing to stake everything, who are courageous. Indeed, both the man and the merchant in these two parables sell everything they have, thus renouncing their material security. From this it can be understood that the building of the Kingdom requires not only the grace of God, but also the active willingness of humanity. Everything is done by grace, everything! We need only have the willingness to receive it, not to resist grace: grace does everything but it takes "my" responsibility, "my" willingness ... and who is responsible for this?

The gestures of the man and the merchant who seek to buy more precious treasures, depriving themselves of their goods, are decisive gestures, and radical gestures; but I would say that they are "one way" gestures, not a "round trip": they are "one way" gestures. Moreover, they are gestures made with joy because both of them have found treasure. We are called upon to assume the attitude of these two Gospel figures, so that we too may become healthily restless seekers of the Kingdom of Heaven. It is a matter of abandoning the heavy burden of our worldly sureties that prevent us from searching and building up the Kingdom: the covetousness for possession, the thirst for profit and power, and thinking only of ourselves.

54-DAY ROSARY MIRACLE NOVENA: With growing civil unrest, it is important for Catholic Christians to pray for God's peace and blessings for our beloved country. Please join in a nationwide 54-Day Rosary Miracle Novena for God's peace and blessing for our country especially as we approach the November election. This novena follows the format given by the Blessed Virgin Mary to Fortuna Agrelli in the late 1800's. Mary said, "Whoever desires to obtain favors from me should make three novenas of the prayers of the Rosary in petition, and three novenas in thanksgiving."

The 54-Day Rosary Miracle Novena begins on August 15 and ends on October 7. When praying this novena, you pray the Joyful Mysteries on the first day, the Sorrowful Mysteries on the second day, and the Glorious Mysteries on the third day. You then continue repeating this pattern in the following days regardless of what day of the week it is. For the first 27 days (August 15 – September 10) beg the Lord for the intention of peace and blessings for our country surrounding the November election. For the last 27 days (September 11 – October 7) thank the Lord in faith, believing the favor was already granted. May God's peace and blessing reign in our beloved country. Fr. Moen

A SPIRITUAL OPPORTUNITY FOR CHILDREN AND FAMILIES: Help your son/daughter to develop a personal relationship with the Blessed Virgin Mary and consecrate their life to Her. Fr. Moen has provided a free book to families. Preparation began on July 20 and will continue for 33 days with a short reading, reflection, and prayer each day. The consecration to Mary is scheduled for the Queenship of Mary at the 9:00 a.m. Mass at St. Stanislaus in Warsaw on Sat., Aug. 22.

FR. MOEN WILL BE POSTING THE WEEKEND MASS after 6pm on Saturdays at "Sacred Heart and St. Stanislaus Catholic Churches" Facebook page. Also Fr. Moen has recorded a Holy Hour in the Divine Mercy Adoration Chapel. You can watch it on the parishes' Facebook page or go to the parishes' website www.sh-ss.org
