POPE FRANCIS
GENERAL AUDIENCE
Paul VI Audience Hall
Wednesday, 8 January 2020

Dear Brothers and Sisters: In our continuing catechesis on the Acts of the Apostles, we see the Gospel preached not only on land but also at sea, as Paul, now a prisoner, is taken by ship to Rome. From Crete, Paul warns the crew of the risk of further travel, yet they carry on into a near fatal storm. Paul encourages all on board not to be afraid, and recounts how an angel has told him that they will arrive in Rome. In this way, Jesus' promise that his disciples would become his witnesses "to the end of the earth" (Acts 1:8) would be fulfilled. Landing on Malta, the travelers experience "unusual kindness" from the people of that place, but hazards too, as Paul is bitten by a viper. He himself is unharmed, and during his stay on the island he heals many of the sick. Paul's sea voyage, full of peril and salvation, can serve as a symbol of God's providential care for us through our passage from death to life in the waters of baptism. May the Lord sustain us in our own trials and open our hearts to those who today experience shipwreck and arrive on our shores. May they find in us that fraternal love born of our saving encounter with Jesus Christ.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT—JANUARY 12, 2020 – THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD: And a voice came from the heavens, saying, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." MATTHEW 3:17 Two thoughts come to mind when reading this. First, God, Our Father, is so generous, that he gave his only son, whom he really loves, to us so that we can have eternal life with him in heaven. God, Our Creator, really loves us, too! Second, Jesus was obedient to his Father's will, even to the point of death. This is a reminder that our own lives are pure gifts from God and meant to serve God and others.
