POPE FRANCIS
GENERAL AUDIENCE
Paul VI Audience Hall
Wednesday, 22 January 2020

Dear Brothers and Sisters: Today's catechesis occurs in the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, whose theme this year – on hospitality – was prepared by the Christian communities of Malta and Gozo. The theme is based on Saint Paul's dramatic experience of being shipwrecked at Malta, and the welcome he and his companions received there. Indeed, in contrast to the sea's violence, the survivors received "unusual kindness" (Acts 28:2), reflecting God's love for them. This hospitality was then repaid when Paul healed many sick people, thus revealing God's merciful love. Hospitality is an important ecumenical virtue, which is open to listening to the experience that other Christians have of God. When we welcome Christians of a different tradition, we reveal God's love to them and receive the gifts that the Holy Spirit has sown in them. In this way, we Christians are challenged to overcome our divisions and to show Christ's love more effectively to others, especially the many migrants who, like Paul, face danger at sea, as they flee from peril. Working together like this will make us both better disciples of the Lord and more united as the People of God.
