Glorious Processions: Scott Hahn
reflects on The Most Holy Trinity Sunday

In today's Liturgy we're swept through time in glorious procession—from before earth and sky were set in place to the coming of the Spirit upon the new creation, the Church.

We begin in the heart of the Trinity, as we listen to the testimony of Wisdom in today's First Reading. Eternally begotten, the firstborn of God, He is poured forth from of old in the loving delight of the Father.

Through Him, the heavens were established, the foundations of the earth fixed. From before the beginning, He was with the Father as His "Craftsman," the artisan by Whom all things were made. And He took special delight, He tells us, in the crowning glory of God's handiwork—the human race, the "sons of men."

In today's Psalm, He comes down from heaven, is made a little lower than the angels, comes among us as "the Son of Man". All things are put under His feet so that He can restore to humanity the glory for which we were made from the beginning, the glory lost by sin. He tasted death that we might be raised to life in the Trinity, that His name might be made glorious over all the earth.

Through the Son, we have gained grace and access in the Spirit to the Father, as Paul boasts in today's Epistle. The Spirit, the Love of God, has been poured out into our hearts—a Spirit of adoption, making us children of the Father once more.

This is the Spirit that Jesus promises in today's Gospel. His Spirit comes as divine gift and anointing, to guide us to all truth, to show us "the things that are coming," the things that were meant to be from before all ages—that we will find peace and union in God, share the life of the Trinity, and dwell in God as He dwells in us.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENTS: JUNE 15, 2025 - THE MOST HOLY TRINITY SUNDAY: "But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth..." (JOHN 16:13) It has been said that the best gift we can give someone is to teach them how to pray. If you don't talk, and more importantly, listen to God every day, how else will you know what He is calling you to do? Just as you talk to family and friends every day, get in the habit of talking with God every day. Develop a daily prayer routine. Keep your prayers simple and sincere. This is best done in silence when you can hear God's response.
