POPE FRANCIS—GENERAL AUDIENCE

Library of the Apostolic Palace—Wednesday, 10 June 2020

Dear Brothers and Sisters, Good morning. Let us continue with our catechesis on the subject of prayer. The Book of Genesis, through the occurrences of men and women of a far off time, tells us stories that we can reflect on in our own lives. In the Patriarch Cycle, we also find that of a man who shrewdly developed his best talent: Jacob. The biblical account tells us about the difficult relationship Jacob had with his brother Esau. Ever since childhood, there was a rivalry between them, which was never overcome later on. Jacob is the second-born - they were twins - but through trickery he manages to obtain the blessing and birthright of their father Isaac (cf. Gen 25:19-34). It is only the first in a long series of ploys of which this unscrupulous man is capable. Even the name "Jacob" means someone who is cunning in his movements.

Forced to flee far from his brother, he seems to succeed in every undertaking in his life. He is adept at business: he greatly enriches himself, becoming the owner of an enormous flock. With tenacity and patience he manages to marry Laban's most beautiful daughter, with whom he is truly in love. Jacob - as we would say in modern terms - is a "self-made" man; with his ingenuity, his cunning, he manages to obtain everything he wants. But he lacks something. He lacks a living relationship with his own roots.

And one day he hears the call of home, of his ancient homeland, where his brother Esau, with whom he has always had a terrible relationship, still lives. Jacob sets out, undertaking a long journey with a caravan of many people and animals, until he reaches the final step, the Jabbok stream. Here the Book of Genesis offers us a memorable page (cf. 32:23-33). It describes that the patriarch, after having all of his people and all the livestock - and they were many - cross the stream, remains alone on the bank of the river on the foreign side. And he ponders: What awaits him the following day? What attitude will his brother Esau, from whom he stole his birthright, assume? Jacob's mind is a whirlwind of thoughts.... And, as it is getting dark, suddenly a stranger grabs him and begins to wrestle with him. The Catechism explains: "the spiritual tradition of the Church has retained the symbol of prayer as a battle of faith and as the triumph of perseverance" (CCC, 2573).

HOLY LAND OLIVE WOOD CARVINGS—A message from Jane Alatrash: The coronavirus pandemic has forced thousands of pilgrims to leave the Holy Land. The streets of Bethlehem and Jerusalem have been empty for quite some time. The cancellation of pilgrimages is having serious repercussions for many Christian families. In the past, when the Holy Land experienced wartime conditions, some people managed to temporarily find an economic niche outside of tourism. However, the pandemic measures, having affected all business sectors including the olive wood industry, has forced everything to shut down. Even we as the Holy Land Crafts & Pilgrimage group are unable to lend them a hand during this difficult time because of the closures here in the U.S. Because our visit to your parish this year is unpredictable, we humbly ask you to visit our website WWW.HOLYLANDCRAFTS.NET and browse through the beautiful hand carved religious items. We value your support through these unprecedented times. May God bless you and keep you safe.

MADE FOR GREATNESS MEN'S RETREAT that was scheduled for July 17-19, 2020 has been postponed until the summer of 2021.

SUMMER RETREATS FOR YOUTH: Per Bishop Folda and the Convent in Hankinson, we are able to hold our Young Women's (July 15-18) and Young Men's (July 19-22) Summer Retreats. We have wonderful space to do the necessary distancing and still hold these two great retreats. Currently we have more room for young women and young men. This is for ages 13-17. The fee is $150/person and includes housing, meals, all craft supplies used, fun times outside, Mass each day, reconciliation and adoration. The topic this year for the young women is "Our unfinished love story" and for the young men "To the Core...Man's Relationship with God". Our young adults who have planned and will present this retreat are absolutely awesome. You will love all of them. Come one, come all...get your registrations and deposit of $50 into the Diocese at this address: Youth and Young Adult Ministry Department, Diocese of Fargo, 5201 Bishops Blvd Ste A, Fargo, ND 58104. Make checks out to "Diocese of Fargo". Questions, contact Fr. Jasinski at 701-356-7907. You can find registration forms at fargodiocese.org/youth-1 Then scroll down until you see Young Women's Summer Retreat.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT—JUNE 21, 2020—12th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: "Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father." MATTHEW 10:32 Would others know that you are Catholic by the way you act and speak? Do you share your Catholic faith with others? Do you defend your Catholic faith when the situation arises or do you remain silent? Do you pray in public before meals? Pray for the strength and courage to be a joyful witness of our Catholic faith when the opportunity presents itself. Let us become the radiant light and bold witness that we are called to be!

DIVINE MERCY ADORATION CHAPEL

RENOVATION WORK ON THE ADORATION CHAPEL began on May 1st. The heating and electrical work is now complete. The excess heating pipes were removed from the south wall. The lighting was changed and now has a dimmer feature. The wall texturing and painting has been completed also. We will be installing new tile and carpet and trim boards. The tabernacle altar, monstrance, chairs, and books will all stay the same. Progress is going well and on a steady basis. As soon as the Chapel renovation is complete, Eucharistic Adoration will resume!
