Catechesis on prayer - 7. The prayer of Moses

Dear Brothers and Sisters, good morning! In our itinerary on the theme of prayer, we are realizing that God never liked to have anything to do with those who prayed the “easy” way. And Moses was not a “weak” dialogue partner either, from the very first day of his vocation.

When God called him, Moses was in human terms a “failure”. The Book of Exodus depicts him in the land of Midian as a fugitive. As a young man he had felt compassion for his people and had aligned himself in defense of the oppressed. But he soon discovered that, despite his good intentions, it was not justice, but violence that came from his hands. His dreams of glory shattered, Moses was no longer a promising official, destined to rise rapidly in his career, but rather one who gambled away opportunities, and now grazed a flock that was not even his own. And it was precisely in the silence of the desert of Midian that God summoned Moses to the revelation of the burning bush: “I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God” (Ex 3:6).

Moses opposes God who speaks, who invites him to take care of the people of Israel once more with his fears and his objections: he is not worthy of that mission, he does not know the name of God, he will not be believed by the Israelites, he has a stammering tongue... so many other objections. The word that appears most frequently on Moses's lips, in every prayer he addresses to God, is the question: “Why?” Why have you sent me? Why do you want to free this people? Why? There is even a dramatic passage in the Pentateuch, where God reproaches Moses for his lack of trust, a lack that will prevent him from entering the promised land (cf. Nm 20:12). With these fears, with this heart that often falters, how can Moses pray? Rather, Moses appears human like us. And this happens to us too: when we have doubts, how can we pray? It is not easy for us to pray. And it is because of his weakness, as well as his strength, that we are impressed. Entrusted by God to transmit the Law to his people, founder of divine worship, mediator of the highest mysteries, he will not for this reason cease to maintain close bonds of solidarity with his people, especially in the hour of temptation and sin. He was always attached to his people. Moses never forgets his people.

HOLY LAND OLIVE WOOD CARVINGS—A message from Jane Alatrash: The coronavirus pandemic has forced thousands of pilgrims to leave the Holy Land. The streets of Bethlehem and Jerusalem have been empty for quite some time. The cancellation of pilgrimages is having serious repercussions for many Christian families. In the past, when the Holy Land experienced wartime conditions, some people managed to temporarily find an economic niche outside of tourism. However, the pandemic measures, having affected all business sectors including the olive wood industry, has forced everything to shut down. Even we as the Holy Land Crafts & Pilgrimage group are unable to lend them a hand during this difficult time because of the closures here in the U.S. Because our visit to your parish this year is unpredictable, we humbly ask you to visit our website WWW.HOLYLANDCRAFTS.NET and browse through the beautiful hand carved religious items. We value your support through these unprecedented times. May God bless you and keep you safe.

MADE FOR GREATNESS MEN'S RETREAT that was scheduled for July 17-19, 2020 has been postponed until the summer of 2021.

SUMMER RETREATS FOR YOUTH: Per Bishop Folda and the Convent in Hankinson, we are able to hold our Young Women's (July 15-18) and Young Men's (July 19-22) Summer Retreats. We have wonderful space to do the necessary distancing and still hold these two great retreats. Currently we have more room for young women and young men. This is for ages 13-17. The fee is $150/person and includes housing, meals, all craft supplies used, fun times outside, Mass each day, reconciliation and adoration. The topic this year for the young women is "Our unfinished love story" and for the young men "To the Cor...Man's Relationship with God". Our young adults who have planned and will present this retreat are absolutely awesome. You will love all of them. Come one, come all...get your registrations and deposit of $50 into the Diocese at this address: Youth and Young Adult Ministry Department, Diocese of Fargo, 5201 Bishops Blvd Ste A, Fargo, ND 58104. Make checks out to "Diocese of Fargo". Questions, contact Fr. Jasinski at 701-356-7907. You can find registration forms at fargodiocese.org/youth-1 Then scroll down until you see Young Women's Summer Retreat.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT—JUNE 28, 2020—13th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: "...whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me." MATTHEW 10:38 Pope Benedict XVI said, "The world offers you comfort. But you were not made for comfort, you were made for greatness". "Comfort" puts me first. "Picking up your cross and following Jesus" puts God and others first. Why settle for comfort when you can achieve greatness! Pick up your cross, ask Jesus for guidance on using your gifts and live the life God intended for you!

DIVINE MERCY ADORATION CHAPEL

RENOVATION WORK ON THE ADORATION CHAPEL began on May 1st. The heating and electrical work is now complete. The excess heating pipes were removed from the south wall. The lighting was changed and now has a dimmer feature. The wall texturing and painting has been completed also. We will be installing new tile and carpet and trim boards. The tabernacle altar, monstrance, chairs, and books will all stay the same. Progress is going well and on a steady basis. As soon as the Chapel renovation is complete, Eucharistic Adoration will resume!
