DIVINE LITURGY WITH THE BEATIFICATION OF 7 GREEK-CATHOLIC MARTYR BISHOPS

An Excerpt from the HOMILY OF HIS HOLINESS POPE FRANCIS
Field of Liberty in Blaj
Sunday, 2 June 2019

Dear Brothers and Sisters: "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?" (cf. Jn 9:2). The disciples' question to Jesus triggers a series of actions and events that will accompany the entire Gospel account and clearly reveal what really blinds the human heart. Jesus, like his disciples, sees the man blind from birth. He acknowledges him and gives him his full attention. After making it clear that the man's blindness was not the result of sin, he mixes dirt with his saliva and smears it on the man's eyes. Then he tells him to wash in the pool of Siloam. After washing, the man blind from birth recovers his sight. It is significant that the miracle is recounted in just two verses; everything else has to do, not with the blind man who has recovered his sight, but with the arguments that followed his healing. It seems that his life and especially the story of his cure are of little interest, except as an occasion of debate, irritation and anger. The man healed of his blindness is questioned first by the astonished crowd, then by the Pharisees, who also interrogate his parents. They question the identity of the man who was healed; then they deny the act of God, with the excuse that God does not work on the Sabbath. They even go so far as to doubt that the man was actually born blind. The whole scene and the arguments that follow show how hard it is to understand the actions and priorities of Jesus, who brings someone from the periphery into the center. It is particularly hard for people who think that "the Sabbath" is more important than the love of the Father who wills all people to be saved (cf. 1 Tim 2:4). The blind man had to live not only with his own blindness, but also with the blindness of those around him. We see the resistance and the hostility that can arise in the human heart when, instead of putting people at the center, we put special interests, labels, theories, abstractions and ideologies, which manage only to blind everything around them. The Lord's approach is different: far from hiding himself behind inaction or ideological abstractions, he looks people in the eye. He sees their hurts and their history. He goes out to meet them and he does not let himself be sidetracked by discussions that fail to prioritize and put at the center what is really important.

ALL PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

HOLY LAND OLIVE WOOD HAND CARVINGS will be available for sale at both Sacred Heart, Minto, and St. Stanislaus, Warsaw, after the Masses the weekend of June 8 & 9. Representatives from Catholic Bethlehem Christian Families will be with us and they ask for your help and blessing for the native people of the Holy Land in Bethlehem. Sixty years ago these families made up 18% of the population. Recent events in the Middle East have caused these families to face devastating economical strain and have caused their population in the Holy Land to decrease to less than 2%. These families have relied on the income from their religious hand-carved olive wood artifacts to tourists. Now these carvings are being brought for sale to you in the USA. All the proceeds from the sales will be sent back to these families in the Holy Land so that they may be able to keep their homes and provide for their families. The last few years have been very tough for the Christian families, and this is the only source of income for them. Here is a chance for you to have a genuine olive wood carving from the Holy Land while at the same time supporting Holy Land Christians. Please take the time to browse through their items and then purchase something special from the Holy Land to have in your home. Your help will be greatly appreciate.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT – JUNE 9, 2019 – PENTECOST SUNDAY: "The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you." (JOHN 14:26) The materialism of our society lures us to concentrate more on what we want than on what God wants for us. The relativism of our world tells us that we should be tolerant of all things, that there is no absolute truth. Pray to the Holy Spirit to transform our lives and to guide our thoughts, words and actions.
