“Today” is the Day: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

It is the age between our Lord’s first coming and His last. We live in the new world begun by His life, death, Resurrection, and Ascension, by the sending of His Spirit upon the Church. But we await the day when He will come again in glory.

“Lo, the day is coming,” Malachi warns in today’s First Reading. The prophets taught Israel to look for the Day of the Lord, when He would gather the nations for judgment.

Jesus anticipates this day in today’s Gospel. He cautions us not to be deceived by those claiming “the time has come.” Such deception is the background also for today’s Epistle.

The signs Jesus gives His Apostles seem to already have come to pass in the New Testament. In Acts, the Epistles, and Revelation, we read of famines, earthquakes, and the Temple’s desolation. We read of persecutions—believers imprisoned and put to death, testifying to their faith with wisdom in the Spirit. These “signs,” then, show us the pattern for the Church’s life—both in the New Testament and today.

We too live in a world of nations and kingdoms at war. And we should take the Apostles as our “models,” as today’s Epistle counsels. Like them we must persevere in the face of unbelieving relatives, friends, forces, and authorities hostile to God.

As we do in today’s Psalm, we should sing His praises and joyfully proclaim His coming as Lord and King. The Day of the Lord is always a day that has already come and a day still yet to come. It is the “today” of our Liturgy.

The Apostles prayed marana tha—“O Lord come!”. In the Eucharist He answers, coming again as the Lord of Hosts and the Sun of Justice with its healing rays. It is a mighty sign—and a pledge of that Day to come.

 DIocese OF FARGO SYNOD: As part of our Fargo Diocesan Synod, the bishop is asking you to take a parish self-reflection survey. The goal of this survey is three-fold: 1. To gauge where the faith of the Church is at in the Diocese of Fargo. 2. To help the faithful reflect upon where they are at and where they could be. 3. To begin the discussion about what the next steps are to help get us where the Holy Spirit wants us to be. You can take the self-reflection via the paper form available by the bulletin, online at fargodiocese.org/synod, or by scanning this barcode. We have until Sunday, November 27, to complete and return the survey. Return the paper survey in the collection basket or mail it to the parish office, PO Box 316, Minto ND 58261.

MEN FROM THE PARISHES OF ST. STANISLAUS AND SACRED HEART are invited to a men's group that meets bi-weekly. TRIENNIAL NATIONAL COLLECTION FOR THE ARCHDIOCESE FOR THE MILITARY SERVICES, USA: On behalf of His Excellency, the Most Reverend Timothy P. Broglio, Archbishop for the Military Services, USA (AMS), thank you to all those who contributed to the National collection for the AMS last week. Thank you for supporting the men and women and their families from our own parish and diocese who serve and protect this great nation and who defend the freedoms we hold dear. Please pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and military chaplaincy. To learn more about the AMS, go to www.milarch.org/nationalcollection. If you have not already made a donation, you may use your own envelope marked Military Collection, include your name if you wish, and put your envelope in the regular collection basket.

138th ANNUAL BLACK AND INDIAN COLLECTION will be this weekend, Nov. 12 & 13. Our support of this collection helps build the Church in African American, Native American, and Alaska Native communities from coast to coast. Schools, parish religious education programs, and diocesan ministries depend on your generosity to help them spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ! You can help meet unmet needs with a generous contribution today. Thank you for your support. Envelopes are in your boxed set of envelopes or use your own envelope marked Black and Indian Collection with your name on it if you so wish. A second collection basket will be set out this weekend.

HOLIDAY FOOD BASKETS are being prepared and are available for pickup from Nov. 14 through Dec. 29, 1:00pm-4:00pm, Monday through Thursday at the Walsh County Food Pantry, 344 West 15th St., Grafton. Anyone in need is welcome to pick up a Holiday Food Basket. Please bring a photo ID and proof of residency to get a food basket. The Food Pantry does not deliver baskets.

FAMILY ADVENT CALENDAR CHALLENGE FLYERS for the Walsh County Food Pantry will be attached to a later November bulletin. For every day from Dec. 1 to Dec. 24, add an item to a box or bag for the Food Pantry. Donate the contents to the Walsh County Food Pantry during the first week of January.
