To Rise Again: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

With their riddle about seven brothers and a childless widow, the Sadducees in today's Gospel mock the faith for which seven brothers and their mother die in the First Reading.

The Maccabean martyrs chose death—tortured limb by limb, burned alive—rather than betray God's Law. Their story is given to us in these last weeks of the Church year to strengthen us for endurance—that our feet not falter but remain steadfast on His paths. The Maccabeans died hoping that the "King of the World" would raise them to live again forever.

The Sadducees don't believe in the Resurrection because they can't find it literally taught in the Scriptures. To ridicule this belief, they fix on a law that requires a woman to marry her husband's brother if he should die without leaving an heir.

But God's Law wasn't given to ensure the raising up of descendants to earthly fathers. The Law was given, as Jesus explains, to make us worthy to be "children of God"—sons and daughters born of His Resurrection.

"God our Father," today's Epistle tells us, has given us "everlasting encouragement" in the Resurrection of Christ. Through His grace, we can now direct our hearts to the love of God.

As the Maccabeans suffered for the Old Law, we will have to suffer for our faith in the New Covenant. Yet, He will guard us in the shadow of His wing, He will keep us as the apple of His eye, as we sing in today's Psalm. The Maccabeans' persecutors marveled at their courage. We too can glorify the Lord in our sufferings and in the daily sacrifices we make.

And we have even greater cause for hope than they did. One who has risen from the dead has given us His word—that He is the God of the living, that when we awake from the sleep of death we will behold His face and be content in His presence.

 DIocese OF FARGO SYNOD: As part of our Fargo Diocesan Synod, the bishop is asking you to take a parish self-reflection survey. The goal of this survey is three-fold: 1. To gauge where the faith of the Church is at in the Diocese of Fargo. 2. To help the faithful reflect upon where they are at and where they could be. 3. To begin the discussion about what the next steps are to help get us where the Holy Spirit wants us to be. You can take the self-reflection via the paper form available by the bulletin, online at fargodiocese.org/synod, or by scanning this barcode. We have until Sunday, November 27, to complete the survey. Return the paper survey in the collection basket or mail it to the parish office, PO Box 316, Minto ND 58261.

Please pray for those considering a vocation. Prayer cards with seminarian photos from our diocese are in back of the church by the bulletins. Please pick them up and pray for our seminarians.

TRIENNIAL NATIONAL COLLECTION FOR THE ARCHDIOCESE FOR THE MILITARY SERVICES, USA will be this weekend, November 5 & 6.

This is a collection approved by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops and is taken every three years. The AMS is the Archdiocese for the Military Services, not of the Military Services. This is an important distinction because the AMS receives no funding from the U.S. Government or U.S. Military and has no parishes from which to receive a weekly assessment. Instead, it must rely on the generosity of those whose values and priorities align with its mission, programs, and services to meet its costs. Please prayerfully consider a contribution to this special collection to support active-duty military men and women and their families. To learn more about the AMS, go to www.milarch.org/nationalcollection. Please use your own envelope marked Military Collection and include your name if you wish. A second collection basket will be set out on Nov. 5 & 6. Please give generously.

138th ANNUAL BLACK AND INDIAN COLLECTION will be next weekend, Nov. 12 & 13. Our support of this collection helps build the Church in African American, Native American, and Alaska Native communities from coast to coast. Schools, parish religious education programs, and diocesan ministries depend on your generosity to help them spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ! Envelopes are in your boxed set of envelopes or use your own envelope marked Black and Indian Collection with your name on it if you so wish. A second collection basket will be set out next weekend.
