Seeing the Son of David: Dr. Scott Hahn Reflects on the Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel turns on an irony—it is a blind man, Bartimaeus, who becomes the first person outside of the Apostles to recognize Jesus as the Messiah. And his healing is the last miracle Jesus performs before entering the holy city of Jerusalem for His last week on earth.

The scene on the road to Jerusalem evokes the joyful procession prophesied by Jeremiah in today's First Reading. In Jesus this prophecy is fulfilled. God, through the Messiah, is delivering His people from exile, bringing them back from the ends of the earth, with the blind and lame in their midst.

Jesus, as Bartimaeus proclaims, is the long-awaited Son promised to David. Upon His triumphal arrival in Jerusalem, all will see that the everlasting kingdom of David has come.

As we hear in today's Epistle, the Son of David was expected to be the Son of God. He was to be a priest-king like Melchizedek, who offered bread and wine to God Most High at the dawn of salvation history.

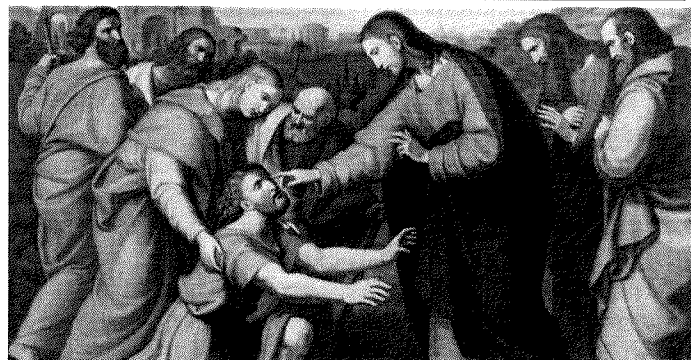

Bartimaeus is a symbol of his people, the captive Zion of whom we sing in today's Psalm. His God has done great things for him. All his life has been sown in tears and weeping. Now, he reaps a new life.

Bartimaeus, too, should be a sign for us. How often Christ passes us by—in the person of the poor, in the distressing guise of a troublesome family member or burdensome associate—and yet we don't see Him.

Christ still calls to us through His Church, as Jesus sent His Apostles to call Bartimaeus. Yet how often are we found to be listening instead to the voices of the crowd, not hearing the words of His Church.

Today He asks us what He asks Bartimaeus: "What do you want me to do for you?" Rejoicing, let us ask the same thing of Him—what can we do for all that He has done for us?

ALL PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

CONSECRATION TO ST. JOSEPH – Fr. Moen is organizing a Consecration to St. Joseph. We will be using the book Consecration to St. Joseph: The Wonders of Our Spiritual Father by Fr. Donald Calloway, MIC. This book provides 33-days of reflections and prayers to prepare for making the consecration. Those who are preparing will privately read the daily reflections. We begin on Nov. 6 and end on Dec. 8. Group consecration ceremonies can be made after the Masses on Dec. 8 (Holy Day of Obligation) or done privately on that day. Please let Fr. Moen know if you want him to order a book for you by Sunday, October 24. The suggested donation for the book is $10.

ALL SOULS' DAY ENVELOPES were attached to previous bulletins. Please return them in them as soon as possible or mail them to the parish office so that they are received by Oct. 28 so that they can be placed on the altars of our churches by Nov. 2. List on the envelope your deceased loved ones that you would like remembered in the collective Mass intentions on Tuesday, Nov. 2. Fr. Moen will offer a Mass for the names submitted to Sacred Heart at 8:00 a. m. at Sacred Heart Church, Minto, and Fr. Joseph will offer a Mass for the names submitted to St. Stanislaus at 8:30 a.m. at St. Stanislaus Church, Warsaw. If needed, you may put an extra slip of paper inside the envelope with more names. You may also use one of your own plain white envelope if you don't have an All Souls' Day envelope. Please indicate on all envelopes your name and parish (Sacred Heart or St. Stanislaus) so that the names of your deceased loved ones can be placed on the altar in your parish during the month of Nov.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY: This weekend is World Mission Sunday. We celebrate this day by remembering our baptismal call—to bring the Gospel to all! The collection today for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith supports the work and witness of the Mission Church, as it provides for priests, religious, and lay leaders who offer the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's missions. Thank you for your generosity. Envelopes are in your boxed set of envelopes or use your own envelope marked World Mission Sunday.
