GENERAL AUDIENCE

Wednesday, 2 October 2019

Dear Brothers and Sisters: In our continuing catechesis on the Acts of the Apostles, we now consider how a new stage in the spread of the Gospel occurs. The deacon Philip, prompted by the Holy Spirit, encounters a man whose heart is open to God. This foreigner, a high official of the Queen of Ethiopia, is reading a passage from the prophet Isaiah. Yet, without a guide, he is unable to understand its full meaning. Philip explains to him how the Old Testament prophecies reach their fulfilment in Christ. As a result, the Ethiopian professes his faith in Jesus, and asks to be baptized. From the baptismal waters he emerges no longer a stranger, but a member of the Body of Christ. The dialogue in this encounter reveals to us the key to reading the Scriptures: namely, Christ. Let us pray that the Holy Spirit will strengthen all the baptized to follow the example of Philip in bearing witness to the saving power of the Gospel and bringing others to Jesus.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT – OCTOBER 6, 2019 – 27th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: "For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control." - 2 TIMOTHY 1:7 Many of us compartmentalize our Faith, we bring it out only when we attend Mass or when we attend a parish event. The next time you are at a neighborhood party, at work, or out shopping, would your actions signal to others that you are a good and faithful servant of our Lord?
